

Stefanos Spathakis
Business Development
& Investment Director

Stefanos holds an MSc degree in Finance From London School of Economics (LSE) and a Business Administration Degree from the University of Piraeus. He has wide range experience in the real estate and investment sectors as he has handled a large number of significant investments. He began his career as a Financial Officer at Intralot S.A., dealing with the company's expansion activities in the countries of Southeastern Europe. Today, Stefanos, is the Business Development & Investment Director of Positive Energy S.A. , as well as a member of its Board of Directors.