

Abraham Tsoukalidis
President and Founder

Abraham began his Career in Monitor Company in London as a strategy consultant. In 2000, he joined Intracom S.A. setting up the company's bioinformatics and IT Solutions management for the Life Sciences division. Abraham holds a degree in Applied Mathematics and Biology from the Harvard University, Cambridge and a European Master in Total Quality Management. Today, Abraham is the President and Founder of Positive Energy S.A. www.positiveenergy.gr as well as the Executive Director of GENNET group of companies (www.gennetsa.com). The main activities of the companies are Renewable Energy Sources Investment and Construction, as well as High Technology. Abraham is a founding member of the Hellenic Young Entrepreneurs Association Young Leaders.